The Great Strike is Over.

It's glorious news! Everybody is happy. The old town should now begin to boom. We will do our part by continuing our

20 Per Cent Discount Sale

for the next 30 days. We'd like to stop this sale at once, but a few days since we sent out between nine and ten thousand circulars, notifying the people within a radius of fifty miles of this city that our entire stock (with two or three minor articles excepted) would be sold as low as any reliable house in America sold same class of merchandise, and then give them a discount of 20 per cent, refunding them one-fifth the amount of their purchase. We cannot honorably withdraw this offer at a moment's notice, and to keep faith with the public we shall continue during the month of July to offer our entire stock at 20 Per Cent Discount.....

Please bear in mind, we meet any special prices made by any reliable dealers, and then refund 20c on every dollar you spend.

Revolvers to Spare.
According to an exemplification Saturday evening, the number of "guns" carried by Wheeling people is surprisingly large. A horse owned by Elbert, the Eighth ward blacksmith, was fatally injured by a Baltimore & Ohio train, at the Sixteenth and Market street crossing, and there was a suggestion to put the animal out of misery by a man in the crowd that was soon attracted to the scene. In a moment ten revolvers flashed to view. A stranger ended the horse's sufferings with a well directed bullet and when an officer inquired who shot it, he was told that it was a humane officer, Mr. Elbert will bring suit for $250 damages against the railroad company to-day.

Wheeling Park Races.
Entries for the bicycle races to-morrow afternoon at Wheeling Park close this evening at 6 o'clock, with Herman Fredrich, at 55 Twelfth street. There are two events, the half-mile open, and the two-mile handicap, for high class prizes, which were announced a few days ago. Entry blanks can be secured from Herman Fredrich, at the Wheeling Novelty Works store on Twelfth street, or at the Intelligencer counting room. The handicapping will be done by Will R. Stevenson, formerly official L. A. W. handicapper.

THE DIVINE HAND

Shown Prominently in American History, Says Dr. Sooy.

IT GUIDED THE SHIP OF STATE

Through all the Perilous Epochs and was in Evidence at the Founding and Colonization of This Country. Dr. Sooy's Expansionist Views—The Sermon one of Many Patriotic Discourses Delivered in Local Churches Sunday.

The approach of the anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence resulted in patriotic sermons being delivered from several Wheeling pulpits yesterday, and all referred at great length to the war with Spain and its prosecution in the Philippines. "The Divine Hand in History," with greater reference to American history, was the topic on which Dr. Sooy dwelt last night, at the Fourth Street M. E. church.

The days of human history may have been man's, said Dr. Sooy in his opening remarks, but the years and the ages were Christ's. It was Him who made cosmos out of chaos. A divine hand was shown on every side, and to the speaker there was no beauty in studying the history of the past if the divine was left out. It was impossible to separate the power of religion from American history.

Christopher Columbus felt the same seal as the crusaders of old. The same spirit impelled the early English and French discoverers. Sir Humphrey Gilbert, Sir Walter Raleigh, and the Pilgrim Fathers were shining examples. The Pilgrim Fathers planted proper seed in Massachusetts; it was a religious movement behind Lord Baltimore in colonizing Maryland; Christian philanthropy pertained to Georgia's birth, and William Penn, the Quaker, was characterized by religious spirit in his work in the state named after him. It was Benjamin Franklin who was the author of the resolutions calling for the opening of the sessions of Congress by prayer, and incidentally Dr. Sooy read extracts from Franklin's speech on that occasion to controvert the assertion that the great philosopher was an infidel.

Dr. Sooy held that this country was dedicated to Jesus Christ. Faith in Him was shown in the coin issued by the government, in the articles of the original thirteen states, in Thanksgiving day, and in many other instances, continued the speaker. He believed this faith characterized the nation was with Spain. A year ago he had stood in the same pulpit and declared it was a war for right and humanity and that God was on the side of American arms.

Branching out to discussion of the issues involved since the war's outbreak, Dr. Sooy believed there was an error in the declaration of war as pertaining to Cuba, namely the clause stipulating that the American forces would withdraw when the island was freed from Spanish rule. Dr. Sooy thought the stars and stripes should float over Cuba forever more and he therefore held that the error noted should be corrected. He was in favor of retention of the Philippines, although it was not a question of which flag should wave there so much as it was a question whether these islands were to be left in ignorance and spiritual darkness.

National legislation, he concluded, must be kept in conformity with divine teachings. He believed the conscience of the nation was right when it came to a test. The religious sentiment was such that it would rather throne than dethrone religion, although church people regretted the failure of the effort to abolish the canteens at the army camps, and measures looking towards stricter enforcement of Sabbath laws. There were traitors, of course, men who howled for "liberty" when they meant license, but every good citizen was a patriot, and thank God, exclaimed Dr. Sooy, "there are a lot of them." He concluded his sermon by invoking God's care of the nation in coming years.

THE best investment for hot weather is a nice, cool HAMMOCK, for 65c, 75c, 95c, $1.25 up to $3.50. All full size, with spreader.

There Are Poor Storekeepers

Good storekeepers—better and best—the same way be said of store stocks and values. Those who trade here are the store's best advertisers. Ask any good dresser or anyone whom you know to be economically inclined—if they deal here they'll recommend you to; if they've never tried us they cannot tell what they've missed. You'll not find a single enemy of this store—its methods—its prices—is there another in town can truthfully say the same?

We are in the business for profit—there's profit in making friends—friends are only secured by square, fair dealing.

Noble sentiments in business wouldn't have much commercial value unless accompanied by tact, talent and facilities. Judge for yourselves whether we have our share. Judge by general appearance—by comparison, by stock, style and prices.

Make any test you see fit—we'll warrant you'll select our store. Money back protects you here and demonstrates our self-confidence.
